Holiday Markets Connect Visitors with Local Makers on Florida's Historic Coast

From historic homes to oak-covered courtyards, enjoy a festive shopping atmosphere this season

St. Augustine, Fla. (November 18, 2024) – Get into the festive spirit without getting into a winter coat with holiday markets that will make checking off any shopping list a pleasure.

Florida's Historic Coast is all about waterfront fun year-round. Select from handcrafted items, home décor, and more while enjoying beach breezes at the Vilano Beach Artisan Market Walk on Dec. 21, the Art Walk at the Beach on Nov. 30, and the Holiday Market at St. Augustine Beach on Dec. 14. The Boardwalk Bazaar at Marina Munch on Nov. 29 features marsh vistas and a unique resale market.

St. Augustine's landmarks set the stage for shopping with a side of history. The Colonial Quarter hosts the Nights of Lights Holiday Market, Nov. 23, 2024-Jan. 1, 2025, complete with snow and fun gifts. The Lightner Museum invites local artisans to showcase their wares at its Holiday Market on Dec. 5. Cider, s'mores, gifts, and fun are on the menu at the Artisans' Holiday Night Market at the Ximenez-Fatio House Museum on Dec. 6.

Art lovers will find many handcrafted gifts at the Moonlight Market at Jenna Alexander Studio on Nov. 16. Step back in time with a quaint, hometown holiday experience at the Hastings Main Street Fall Festival of Art on Nov. 30-Dec. 1 and the Holiday Market on Main Street in Hastings on Dec. 14.

Shop on the wild side with local artists, craft vendors, and alligators at the Jingle Bell Croc Holiday Night Market at the St. Augustine Alligator Farm on Dec. 14. With venues as cool as its wares, guests can shop in style at the "Whiskey Wonderland" at the St. Augustine Distillery on Nov. 22 and the St. Augustine Amphitheatre Seasonal Night Market on Dec. 10. Hop on a trolley Nov. 23 to shop and eat in Uptown St. Augustine on the Holly Jolly Shopping Spree. Support young vendors and their wares at the Kidz Entrepreneurs Holiday Market on Dec. 8.

Plan a complete holiday shopping adventure today using the handy trip planner.
